

BLM ROLE. The Bureau of Land Management conducted an Environmental Assessment and awarded a Right of Way Permit to Grand County to enable construction of the project on Federal land. The Gore Canyon Whitewater Park supports the BLM's land use management plan objectives that call for protection of the "Outstandingly Remarkable Values" of this reach of the Colorado River. These values include recreational float boating, scenic values, and fishing.